

Dear Emily

You tell me that your dear mother requires spurring to her pen.
I have not directed Miss Stoddards letter that if it is not convenient to fill the blank pages you may seal direct, and send it to me if sent by return of post, I shall have time, and am as well as now, I will write another, but it is too lame to go alone God Bless you all - Pray
Your Affectionate Aunt
